Father Tom's teaching:

When a parent dies there are many things that a family has to worry about: telling extended family and friends, cleaning out the house, bills & debts, not to mention planning a funeral. Under the best of circumstances, these are difficult things to deal with; but there is also the grief and other emotions associated.

These things can be great sources of conflict for a family. I'm sad to say that I have seen more than one family of brothers and sisters torn apart as they try to split up what the parents have left behind. But perhaps worse--in families where the faith is not fully appreciated, sometimes the deceased isn't even given a Catholic funeral. Sometime the ashes of a faithful Catholic grandmother get spread in the wind instead of finding rest in a grave.

It is important that we all plan for the day the Lord calls us home. (1) Please make arrangements for your funeral now. Contact your funeral home and plan things out. (2) In particular, make sure that you talk about your wishes for a Catholic funeral mass, and place of burial. Remember that cremation is acceptable in some circumstances, as long as the ashes are buried in a reasonable time and in one grave. (3) Please take the time to write out your wishes for you estate. (4) Please explain your wishes vocally to your children or closest family.

And please remember that it is never too early to do this. I have had a will made up ever since I became a priest ten years ago. Take the time to plan for your end. It will help to keep your family from conflict and grief.

CFSA (Catholic Family Sharing Appeal): Next week we begin Catholic Family Sharing Appeal 2018. Your gift will help each of the diocesan ministries reach out to thousands, including training our future priests, proclaiming Christ's message through the media, providing counsel to the hurt and reaching out to the youth. Please prayerfully consider how God is asking you to support this year's appeal. Please pray for the success of Catholic Family Sharing Appeal. Remember that any money we raise over our goal stays within our parish. Our efforts here will enable all members of our diocesan Church to give or receive the mercy and love of God.

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time January 28, 2018

No matter what challenges we are facing, we need never lose hope and need never be afraid. God is in total control. His power is hidden now, known only to those who have faith, but it will one day be made manifest when Christ comes again. So we continue to struggle, and sometimes fail, but we hold on to a lively hope that we will one day know the full freedom of the sons and daughters of God.

A Prayer to Overcome Evil

Father God, we praise you for your love and faithfulness towards your children.

We praise you for being a perfect, holy, trustworthy God who is bigger than all the evil we experience here on earth.

We ask that you give us eyes to see when evil is before us, hearts to hate evil and the desire to flee from its presence.

We ask that you would not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil and draw us closer to yourself.

We ask for the long-expected Jesus to come quickly and make all things new. We ask these things in His precious name. Amen.

Where can I find a “Different” Examination of Conscience? The UCSSB website has several to choose including ones based on the 10 Commandments, for Children, Young Adults, Single People and Married Persons. Father explained in RCIA these past couple weeks, it good to read a different Examination to see if there are sins we’ve committed that we haven’t even thought about. A link to these Examinations can be found at <http://www.usccb.org/prayer-and-worship/sacraments-and-sacramentals/penance/examinations-of-conscience.cfm> or by going to www.usccb.org and searching Examination of Conscience and choosing the first option.
