Father Tom's Teaching:

"You are my servant...through whom I show my glory."
I heard about a man once who was not particularly talented in any way; but he wanted to serve those around him. After getting done from work he would stop in the church and pray for a while. Then on his way walking back from work he might notice someone whose face was down, and offer a smile and an encouraging word.

On one such evening after grabbing some groceries, he noticed a downcast woman--an immigrant, he guessed from somewhere in Asia--blending into the crowd of people. Approaching her, he cheerfully pulled her out of her shell and got her to laugh a little. As he was about to leave, she asked hesitantly, "are you Jesus?" Surprised, the man said, "No, my name is Jim. Why would you think that?" Now a little embarrassed, she answered, "Since the loss of my husband, I have been really down for a long time: even to the point of thinking about suicide. I heard Jesus helps people and so I've been praying to Jesus for help. Somehow, you seem just like I imagined He would be."

In the first reading today, Isaiah speaks about the servant of God through whom God will show his Glory. This person is the one whom history would call the Christ, the "Holy-Spirit-anointed-one". Traditionally, we have always attributed this passage to Jesus: for the Father's glory shone through Him so powerfully. But the amazing thing is that, like Jesus our Lord, all of us who are baptized receive the same Holy Spirit. It is for this reason that we are ALL Christians, or in other words, those anointed with the Holy Spirit.

So it is that for those who submit to the Holy Spirit in every aspect of our lives, we can become so much like Jesus that we are almost indistinguishable from Him. Sometimes I see this in people who frequently submit themselves in prayer. The other people start to recognize something different in them. These people have a holiness about them. They show forth the power and glory of God. May all of us be so filled with the Holy Spirit, so conformed to the life of Jesus, that others my mistake us and ask, "Are you Jesus"?

PRAYER

O Lord my God, teach my heart this day where and how to see you, where and how to find you. You are my God and you are my All and I have never seen you. You have made me and remade me. You have bestowed on me all the good things I possess; still I do not know you. I have not yet done that for which I was made. Teach me to seek you! For I cannot seek you unless you teach me or find you unless you show yourself to me. Let me seek you in my desire. Let me desire you in my seeking. Let me find you by loving you. Let me love you when I find you! Amen.

~Prayer of St. Anselm
