World Day of the Sick

Father Tom's teaching:

Not long ago Pope Emeritus Benedict made an astute observation. The Church has three missions: first, prayer and worship; second, care for the poor (broadly understood as anyone in need); and third, evangelization and the spreading of the knowledge and love of Christ. Benedict commented that if any of these three missions was absent, the Church would be a deformed, incomplete version of herself: in fact she would cease to truly be what she is called to be. So for example, if the Church were ever in the position where she carried out worship service and talked about people becoming Catholic, but she didn't take care of the poor, she would end up in hypocrisy (like Pharisees). If worship/prayer isn't present, then the Church is just like one more secular do-good institution. Finally, if evangelization isn't present in the Church--and people are scared or ashamed to talk about Jesus--then the Church withers and dies from old age.

Saint John Bosco was a saint of the 19th century in Italy who dedicated his life to the education and betterment of street children. Like Boy's Town in Omaha, his religious order sought to treat these boys as if they were their own sons.

Like many other saints, John Bosco was a great example of a man fully committed to all three missions of the Church. He was a dedicated man of prayer and worship. He cared for the poor--particularly in the boys who lived on the streets. He saw Christ in these dirty, neglected children and served Christ in them. And finally, he was evangelistic. He knew that the most important change in the lives of these young boys was knowing and loving Jesus Christ. Therefore, his order was dedicated to helping them get to heaven.

Which of these three missions do you have the most difficulty with? Serving the poor around you? Talking about Jesus and the Church with others? Giving God his due in prayer and Sunday mass?

Sharing Appeal. Please prayerfully consider a gift to this year's appeal, fill out your pledge card and bring it to church next weekend. If you do not receive a letter, let the parish office know.

St. Bernard Parish share for 2018 is $43,000 and 100% participation. All Saints Parish share for 2018 is $12,300 and 100% participation. I am confident we will exceed our goals, but we need the help of everyone. Remember any amount raised above our share stays in this parish. Thank you for being a part of Catholic Family Sharing Appeal 2018.

CFSA (Catholic Family Sharing Appeal):

Today we begin the Catholic Family Sharing Appeal 2018. Catholic Family Sharing Appeal challenges us each year to think beyond our walls and our individual needs. At some time in your life, you or someone you love will be served in one way or another from the ministries supported by Catholic Family Sharing Appeal. Your gift helps each of the diocesan ministries reach out to thousands, including training our future priests, a respect for life, education in our faith and ministry to the homebound, helping hurting marriages and more. This week you will receive a letter from Bishop Swain asking for your support for this year's Catholic Family

One
Faith.
One
Family.

Change the words

Time to Prayer
Talent to Participation
Treasure to Generosity

Does this change the way you think?
...about your Faith ...about your life
...How you see God in others
...How you serve others in the name of God and His love

Vocation Teaching: The afflicted Job in the Old Testament thinks that his life is like dust in the wind – there is nothing to it. Sorrow and sadness strike many people; only those who have been afflicted, who know sorrow themselves, are poor enough to minister to others.

"The dying process is a sacred time—a final season to seek closure in this life and prepare for the next in the hope of sharing in Christ's Resurrection. As you enter into this season with your friend or family member, ask God to accompany both of you." –USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "Caring for Loved Ones at Life's End"

St. Josephine Bakhita: The Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace and the International Union of Superiors General has designated February 8 as an annual day of prayer and awareness against human trafficking. February 8 is the feast day of St. Josephine Bakhita, who was kidnapped as a child and sold into slavery in Sudan and Italy. Once Josephine was freed, she became a Canossian nun and dedicated her life to sharing her testament of deliverance from slavery and comforting the poor and suffering. She was declared a Saint in 2000. On February 8, Catholics all over the world are encouraged to host or attend prayer services to create greater awareness about this phenomenon. Through prayer, we not only reflect on the experiences of those that have suffered through this affront to human dignity, but also comfort, strengthen, and help empower survivors.

All Saints News: If the church is locked, call Cindy at 887-3175 or Dolores at 887-3320.

* Please pray for our young people who will be attending their First Reconciliation/First Communion Retreat at St. Bernard Parish on Saturday. Those preparing for First Holy Communion from All Saints are: Will Clemens, Victoria Kramp, Troy Nickeson, and Isabelle Woodring.
