Message from Father Tom:

A few months ago, a foreign exchange student asked me questions regarding the faith. She had come from a culture with very little Christian influence. She asked, "Why does God allow the Christians to suffer so much if He is so powerful?" Her question is a reformulation of "the problem of pain": namely why do bad things happen to good people.

Although I won't (really can't) answer the problem of pain in this little article, I do want to point out that Christians look at pain and suffering very different than others. For us, the model isn't some person who lives completely free of pain, with riches and convenience all about. Instead, our model is Christ--a man beaten and despised, who came in poverty and nakedness into the world. If he is our model, we shouldn't expect to live lives without pain. We should expect that the cross will very much be a part of our lives.

Father Michael Schmitz is fond of pointing out that in this life, we are not traveling on a cruise ship; we are traveling on a battleship. If we expect that we are going to be waited upon hand and foot, to be comforted and entertained at every turn, of course we will be disappointed by our passage through this life. But if, instead, we recognize that this trip through life is about our battle against evil...well, battles require discipline, self-restraint, and, especially, endurance of great pain and difficulty.

We are not traveling on a cruise ship; we are traveling on a battleship. That means that like Christ our Lord, we must expect to live with discipline, self-restraint, and even great pain and mockery. Our Lord endured these things: let us show ourselves worthy to be His followers. Let us take up our crosses this lent and follow Him.

The best Lent is one in which we enter the season wholeheartedly. All too often people either take on too much or don't take on enough. The solution is to simplify our disciplines, focus our intentions and concentrate more clearly on our spiritual goals.

To keep it simple this Lent, try the 1-1-1 Plan: one sin, one add-in, one give up.

1. Concentrate or focus on one sin or fault that is getting in the way of your relationship with God and with others.
2. Add one positive activity that will deepen your prayer and spiritual life (especially if you think you are too busy to put anything more into an impossibly busy schedule!).
3. Deny yourself something you really like or are attached to.

From the "Confessions of St. Augustine"

Late have I loved you, O Beauty ever ancient, ever new, late have I loved you! You were within me, but I was outside, and it was there that I searched for you. In my unloveliness I plunged into the lovely things which you created. You were with me, but I was not with you. Created things kept me from you; yet if they had not been in you they would not have been at all. You called, you shouted, and you broke through my deafness. You flashed, you shone, and you dispelled my blindness. You breathed your fragrance on me; I drew in breath and now I pant for you. I have tasted you, now I hunger and thirst for more. You touched me, and I burned for your peace.

CFSA: Thank you to all who have returned your pledge cards for the Catholic Family Sharing Appeal–2019. If you did not bring yours this week, please fill it out and return it as soon as possible. We need participation from everyone to support the many works of our diocesan church. Our goal is 100% participation through time, talent and treasure. Any amount raised above the goal will stay in the parish.

“Heavenly Father, thank you for the precious gift of life. Give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living.” ~USCCB “Every Life is Worth Living” Prayer

Stewardship Snippets: “I have now brought you the first fruits of the products of the soil which you, O Lord, have given to me.” (Deuteronomy 26:10) This line from the Old Testament offers two challenges. First, do you give to God from your “first fruits”, the best that you have to offer, or do you give from what is leftover? Second, do you recognize that God has given everything you have to you? Ask God for a grateful and generous heart, every day, in all circumstances.

Divine Mercy Chaplet: For Lent and Easter, we will be praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet prior to weekend Masses at St. Bernard. There are pamphlets at the entrances for everyone to pick up to pray with us!
“For the sake of his sorrowful passion, have mercy on us and on the whole world.” ~Chaplet of Divine Mercy
