Father Tom's teaching:

"I am sorry for ever having offended You./
You go to die for love of me./
I want to live and die for love of You."

-The Way of the Cross by St. Alphonsus Liguori

Many of our non-Catholic brothers and sister will talk about a moment in their lives when they accepted Jesus as their Lord and Savior and were saved. In this they oversimplify salvation. We don't really choose the Lord so much as He chooses us! At some point in our lives, the Lord reaches down and saves us--either through our baptism and the catechesis that we receive from our family and friends, or from a word of scripture that God uses to touch us to the heart, or from Confession and Eucharist which we approach and receive as free gifts from the Father in heaven. It is further complicated by the fact that salvation is not "once and done". He will continue to save us day after day; and we must continue to accept Him as Lord and Savior, day after day.

Having said all that, I think Catholics need to accept Jesus as Lord and Savior of their lives. We need (1) to admit that we cannot save ourselves from death, sin, and even damnation. We are rebellious, wicked children, and we are all driving toward a cliff that leads ultimately to hell. We need (2) to recognize that there is no other person in heaven or on earth by which anyone can be saved. Not Steven Hawking, not Oprah; not Buddha, not Muhammad. No one else can save us. And (3) we must choose to change our lives as evidence that we love and rely upon Jesus.

Fortunately, we Catholics have the tools to do this right in front of us. The Stations of the Cross are wonderful ways to move through these three steps. When we gaze upon the wounded Jesus, rebellious as we are, we must admit that we have contributed to His suffering and death. And so we say to Him, "I'm sorry for ever having offended you." Then, we remember him taking up His cross--and the incredible price of our salvation. We say, "You go to die for love of me". Finally, we make a firm resolution to accept his gift of salvation, "I want to live and die for love of You."

We don't just say this once. We say this every time we say the Stations of the Cross. We say it (implicitly) every time we say "Amen" at mass. We say it every time we go to confession. So if a non-Catholic ever asks you if you have accepted Jesus as Lord and Savior, you can tell them..."I do so every day of my life!"
