Message from Father Tom:

I am fascinated by time. We try to count out each moment...but time has a way of alluding any attempt to grasp it too tightly. Albert Einstein once famously said, "Put your hand on a hot stove for a minute, and it seems like an hour. Sit with a pretty girl for an hour, and it seems like a minute. That's relativity."

In Greek there are two words for time. First there is Chronos, a word that corresponds closely to precise, measured and counted time. We might ask if the Chronos-time is right to start the mass: is it 8:30a? On the other hand there is Kyros time, a word which is more about the proper or appropriate moment. We might ask if the Kyros-time is right to start mass: is the chalice ready? Are the families all with us? Are the altar servers settled down?

We are often very concerned about the Chronos time, the time that is on our watches or cell phones. However, true wisdom is about knowing to do the right things at the right times. For example, with children we may ask, "is it the time to punish or the time to look past what they did?" In the book of Ecclesiastes, the author Solomon comments on how there is a proper time for everything:

- A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to uproot the plant.
- A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to tear down, and a time to build.
- A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance.
- A time to scatter stones, and a time to gather them; a time to embrace, and a time to be far from embraces.
- A time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away.
- A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to be silent, and a time to speak.
- A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace.

There is a proper time for one thing and a proper time for the other. It is through prayer that we will know the difference. Let us pray that God will show us the proper time--the Kyros for each and every moment.

"Legacy: A Tasting Experience" will be returning to summer and will be held on Saturday August 25th from 6-10 pm. We hope you can join us in sampling a variety of cheese, coffee, beer and wine. Volunteers are also needed. To purchase tickets or to volunteer go to ccfesd.org

SAVOR

Prayer from The Roman

Missal: Draw near to your servants, O Lord, and answer their prayers with unceasing kindness, that, for those who glory in you as their Creator and guide, you may restore what you have created and keep safe what you have restored. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." (John 6:35)
